

Student Ambassador

Position Summary

A King's Ambassador is the face of the King's community, who is responsible to initiate, enhance, and expand prospective student connection to The King's University. A King's Ambassador will serve as a positive role model who fosters meaningful connections with prospective students, alumni, and other community members through interactions at a wide variety of events that promote and celebrate the King's experience.

Program Dates: September 2025 – April 2026

Reports to: Mar-Claire van den Heuvel and the Admissions Department

Qualifications:

- Support the King's mission, vision and values
- Maintain a current and cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above
- Be familiar with the regulations, policies, & procedures of King's, as described in the Student Handbook
- Have an open-minded attitude toward diversity in all of its forms
- Demonstrate an ability to communicate effectively
- Able to work independently with minimal supervision
- Demonstrate confidence and maturity in interpersonal relationships
- Able to generate enthusiasm for informal networking and social activities
- Able to solve problems with a positive attitude and work ethic
- Be willing and ready to share your unique King's story.

Responsibilities and Expectations:

- Attend all scheduled meetings
- Participate in a minimum of 5 volunteer hours per month at scheduled events
- Mandatory key events: Ambassador training, Harvest Banquet, Fall Open House, Spring Open House (dates still to be determined)
- Engage and welcome guests who attend online and in-person campus visit events.
- Involve yourself in the life of the King's community through attendance at and support of community events as appropriate

King's Ambassadors will be involved in a variety of events throughout the academic year, which should be split between the semesters as evenly as possible. Time commitments will vary from week to week, as will the positions available.

Please Note: Must be prepared to work some evenings and weekends

Perks:

- An exclusive Ambassador T-Shirt
- Networking opportunities
- Volunteer experience
- Reference letters upon request
- Transcript recognition
- Optional participation in additional on-campus training and development.